

6516209816.txt

Please, protect our Democratic rights by championing "choices" instead of limited access- as would be experienced in a monarchy or dictatorship, etc. Satellite radio is the wave of the future and will remain due to demand by the citizenry. This demand willl also make it more accessible to lower income citizens through competition and lower pricing.

Let's have an educated and cultured population which will result in a more politically involved peoples. Satellite radio is one way to obtain this.